Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Sub: Photography Competition during COVID-19 pandemic by the ITF Seafarers Trust
Win 1,000 British Pounds

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the lands are locked, the skies are quite. Only the seas are active due to the hard work of all seafarers who continue to keep the world economy moving. The determined seafarers, despite many challenges, have not surrendered to COVID-19.

The ITF Seafarers Trust, London is organising a photography competition titled “Still At Sea”. It is open to all serving seafarers worldwide. The closing date of receiving entries is 30th September, 2020. You are advised to visit the website <https://www.itfseafarers.org/en/photo-competition#home> or <https://www.seafarerstrust.org/> and follow the instructions of the photography competition.

So, do you think that you are good in photography ? Can your photograph tell a story during the pandemic of COVID-19 ? Can your photographs speak for themselves ?. If yes, then we encourage you to participate. You can be the lucky winner to win 1,000 British pounds.

National Union of Seafarers of India (NUSI) wants our Indian seafarers to send their entries and be successful. NUSI will also recognise the Indian seafarer for their creativity if they win. You should give wide publicity to this circular.

“COVID-19 has come and COVID-19 has to go
Seafarers are “Still at Sea” and nowhere to go
Our emotions, which our photographs will show
Telling our story, we want the outside world to know”

Warm regards,
